

The C. G. Jung Association of Central Ohio (JACO) presents

Artist Books as Space for Soul-Making

A Hands-on Workshop with Jeanne Figueira Grossetti

Sunday, Oct. 30, 2016

1:00 pm to 4:00 pm

JungHaus, 59 W. 3rd Ave., Columbus, OH 43201

In this book arts workshop, we will create simple (and perhaps not-so-simple) structures using an array of materials, and then begin to record our soul-making journeys using spontaneous art and creative writing. Materials will be available for drawing, watercolor painting, simple printmaking, collage, and assemblage. Participants are invited to bring personal ephemera, such as small objects, favorite quotes, and copies of photographs.

The workshop will begin with a guided mindfulness practice for cultivating intention. Throughout the workshop, prompts will be offered, and individual attention given. Tea, coffee, and simple snacks will be available, and the experience will end with the opportunity to reflect and share on the work of the day.

Beginners welcome. No previous book making experience is needed.

“Jeanne created a nurturing, creative atmosphere. I felt free to play and explore with the inviting materials she brought.”

- JACO workshop participant

Jeanne Figueira Grossetti is a visual artist, educator and curator who understands the nature of art as a depth process, and who seeks to apply that understanding for the benefit of individuals, communities, and our world.

A member of Art Books Cleveland and the Jungian Association of Central Ohio, Jeanne earned a B.A. in studio art and anthropology, and an M.A. in history (with specialization in art history), both from Cleveland State University. Jeanne teaches workshops that explore the meeting of inner worlds and art materials.
