

The C. G. Jung Association of Central Ohio (JACO) presents

Harpo Marx as Trickster:

Why We Laugh at Him, Why We Love Him, Why He Seems Divine

NEW DATE: Sunday, May 6, 2012      1:30 pm to 3:00 pm
JungHaus ~ 59 W. 3rd Ave. ~ Columbus, OH 43201

With his cohorts Groucho and Chico, Harpo accomplishes Trickster work of cleansing societies and institutions. Via the iconic tropes of muteness, a horn, and a proffered leg swinging at the knee, Harpo amuses while teaching us how to survive with a flexible egalitarian spirit. Like Trickster tales, the Marx Brothers' films arc between disorder and balance, passing through chaos, with Harpo's tantalizing complexity at the heart of the disruption. Join us for a lively presentation including film clips.

Our presenter, Charlene Fix, teaches literature and writing at Columbus College of Art & Design. She is completing a study of Harpo Marx's persona in the thirteen Marx Brothers films and has received poetry awards from the Ohio Arts Council, Greater Columbus Arts Council and Poetry Society of America.

Fee: $10 Members ~ $12 Non-members ~ SPACE IS LIMITED ~ At the door if space available $12 M ~ $15 NM

Pre-Register and hold your spot: Mail check (made out to JACO) with name & phone to 59 W. 3rd Ave. ~ Columbus, OH 43201 ~ 614.291.8050