BOLLINGEN FUND

The Bollingen Fund was named after the "confession of faith in stone," as Jung called his tower—the house he built for himself with his own hands at Bollingen. Over the years, as he would begin to feel that the house was incomplete, he would add rooms and courtyards and even an upper story. Bollingen was always the place where Jung said he felt most deeply himself.

As you may know, a generous anonymous donation has given JACO the opportunity to create an endowment fund. The originator of this fund contributed generously, matching 50 percent of the money donated by our members and friends in the community. This original phase is now over. We are deeply grateful to our original donor, who had the foresight to plan for JACO's continuing wellbeing, and to all who responded to the call for donations.

We still welcome donations to the Bollingen Fund, which will help ensure JACO's continued survival over the years ahead. Your donation is tax deductible. Please clearly indicate "Bollingen Fund" and send with your registration or separately to JACO, 59 W. Third Ave., Columbus, OH 43201.

Hours: Tuesday-Saturday, 11 am to 2 pm
Please call ahead to be sure a volunteer is there the day you wish to visit.

Creating a Life

Lecture/Discussion

Can we create our lives, or does life create us?

How is it that we are free but chose such repetitive, self-defeating patterns?

How does fate collide with destiny and catch us in between?

What are the sources of those replications, and what are the insights we need to maximize such freedom as we may have?

These are the questions which haunt the modern individual who, wishing freedom, creates repetitions, yet longs for an authentic journey.

Workshop

We can never be free to create our lives if we are in service to fixed, internalized, and largely unconscious ideas. We will engage questions which stir, sift, and raise consciousness of those deeply ingrained ideas which create or repeat patterns in our lives. With consciousness, comes the power to choose more freely.

(Please bring a notepad and pen for journaling).
